SA Oppn Leader Isobel Redmond outlined budget cuts should would make if she won the premier position. Construction commenced on the Marion Aquatic Centre today but the South Rd tunnel under the Grange and Port Rds intersections has not had work commence yet, despite a promise by premier Mike Rann before the 2006 election. The SA Govt prioritised a $1b superway in the north of Adelaide. Steve Shearer from the Road Transport Assoc says there is no confidence in a plan whose details have not been fully released. Treasurer Kevin Foley says the tunnel is a 'moving item'. Redmond would cut advertising, three ministers, ministerial staff and $8m on other programs like the Thinkers in Residents. Foley said the half million dollar cuts were 'an embarrassment'. New opinion polls have the ALP in a dominant position.
